

ImfF – Integration acceptance for refugees

The project „ImfF“ provides you with an learning opportunity that really suits individually to you and helps you with integration into working and living world. Part of it is job-related language teaching. You will become familiar with the conditions of German labour and trainee market. Your personal and professional competence and skills will be identified. There is also the possibility to get a professional testing.

Here are some example of our services

During your participation will you join several teaching units and workshops around the following topics:

- Job-related language training,
- Information for German labour and education law,
- Job interview training,
- Mobility,
- Professional competence assessment.

We believe that regular and targeted coaching can support you. You will be a winner of the day by solving personal and professional problems. You will get the opportunity of recognition of professional qualifications. Moreover you get the chance to acquire important information as a part of your future social and professional participation.

How long can I use the ImfF course?
